Windermere Real Estate Southern California Welcomes Lorena Acosta

PALM SPRINGS, CA – NOVEMBER 14, 2014 – Windermere Real Estate Southern California is proud to announce the addition of Lorena Acosta to its roster of accomplished real estate agents in the Indio office, located at 81703 Highway 111. Acosta has been in real estate since 1994 and carries a strong reputation as a successful agent in Hemet and San Jacinto, so much so that her client list now extends into the second generation of families.

“I work hard for my clients and always try to be as up-front and courteous with them as possible,” stated Acosta, “I service each family individually and make their real estate goals my focus.” Acosta’s diligent work ethic and results-driven track record have earned her the trust of many families in Hemet and San Jacinto. “I now work with the children of my original clients,” she added. “It is so rewarding to work with men and women who I knew as children while I helped their parents make the right real estate decisions. It is a testament to the business I have built and the enduring bond I establish with my clients.”

What sets Acosta apart from other agents is her untraditional journey into the real estate industry, which gives her a unique perspective on client service. “My family friend is a broker, so my friends from church would ask me for advice because they knew I had access to good information,” laughed Acosta. “That friend encouraged me to get into the business and use my passion for helping others as a great way to earn a living and improve the lives of my clients. This job is very rewarding. I get a lot of personal satisfaction out of helping my clients achieve their real estate goals.”

Acosta is proud to join Windermere Southern California because, “Windermere is very professional and offers excellent support and training opportunities.” With a specialized focus on single-family homes and deep roots in Hemet and San Jacinto, Acosta, who is fluent in English and Spanish, is poised to continue her legacy as a top realtor and spread her influence to additional communities in the Coachella Valley.

“Lorena Acosta is a wonderful addition to our family,” stated George Baca, Managing Broker of the Indio office. “Her consistency and history of excellent performance coupled with her service-first mentality makes her the ideal Windermere agent. I am excited to welcome her to our office.”
