Bennion Deville Homes Welcomes Dawn Thomas

LA QUINTA, CA – APRIL 9, 2016 – Bennion Deville Homes proudly welcomes Realtor® Dawn Thomas to the La Quinta office, located at 47-250 Washington Street. Dawn’s family moved to the Greater Palm Springs area in the 1980s and she now lives in Bermuda Dunes. Her late stepfather was a builder/developer and built many landmark homes in the valley. Dawn works with home buyers and sellers throughout the Coachella Valley, specializing in Bermuda Dunes, Sun City Palm Desert, and La Quinta, to accomplish their real estate goals.

Dawn enjoys her career in real estate because she loves working with others and the diversity of desert real estate. “It is a joy of mine to view homes and see what people have done with them,” she says. “Viewing these incredible homes while helping my clients buy or sell their own abode is the perfect combination for me because it fits two of my greatest passions: People and properties.”

Prior to entering real estate, Dawn was a yoga instructor and therapist, which gives her a calming presence and influence in all situations, something that her clients respect and appreciate. “I have had a lifelong dedication to working closely with people. I give my full attention and care to each client’s individual needs and put myself into trying to help them accomplish their goals. Few things are more fulfilling for me than being able to see my clients’ joy and happiness when they either sell their home or purchase the home of their dreams.”

Beyond her passion for real estate and helping people, Dawn loves horses and western culture. Because of this fascination, she volunteers her time at Coachella Valley Horse Rescue, helping in a variety of capacities. “I love being around horses and the rescue gives me the opportunity to do just that while helping them recover and find a new home.”

Dawn was drawn to Bennion Deville Homes because of the company’s tight-knit culture. “I fell in love with the La Quinta office and enjoy working with Sandy [Beakey, Managing Broker] and Tish [Herwig, Managing Broker]. The people are incredibly supportive, hardworking, and humble, and that feeling emanates throughout the building. It just feels like family to me,” she concludes.

Adds Sandy, “Dawn’s composed approach, great work ethic, and knowledge of the local area makes her an excellent real estate professional. We are excited to welcome her to our La Quinta family and wish her a successful 2016.”
